LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Girls

I, Judy Adams, leave to meet Aubrey Dodson at the church.

I, Betty Jean Barber, leave my ability to date every night and still get good grades to Joyce Booth.

I, Tillie Boyd, leave my love of sports to anyone who can keep the late hours.

I, Jackie Clark, leave my seat on the basketball bench to anyone else who can sit there for four years without quitting.

I, Shirley Dawson, leave my ability to take a curve on two wheels to anyone else crazy enough to try it without going in a ditch.

I, Ruth Ferguson, leave my studious mind to Gordon Gibson.

I, Leathy Francisco, leave my position as song-leader to anyone who will be glad to relieve me of the job.

I, Frances Howerton, leave all the books in the library to anyone who has more time to read than I do.

I, Bertha Lewis, leave all my hidden talents to anyone who can find them.

I, Mary Frances Martin, leave bookkeeping in balance.

I, Lois Milam, leave my speed in shorthand to anyone who can keep up.

I, Joan Morris, leave my seriousness to Kitty Hahn.

I, Patsy Ramey, leave my ability to chew gum in Mr. Carter's class to anyone who can get away with it.

I, Shelby Stanfield, leave my ability to cheer and my position as captain of the Cheerleaders to anyone who can go through as much as I did without losing her temper too often.

I, Novalene Steele, leave my shyness to Kate Eanes.

I, Gay Campbell Strader, leave my ability to catch a man to Linda Slayton.

Shelby Stanfield
Testator

Boys

I, Gene Burnett, leave my burning of the night oil for study purposes to Charles Daniels.

I, Job Cobb, leave my gum popping ability to Miss Campbell in hopes that she will find some enjoyment in it.

I, Joe Cox, leave my ability for being late to first period class to James Beggarly.

I, Johnnie Dodson, leave my ability to catch blondes because I won't be needing it anymore.

I, Buddy East, leave my ability to keep from dating girls to anyone that may be stupid enough to want it.

I, Junior Gee, leave my shyness to George Murphy--I think he needs some.

I, Sterling Green, leave my fascinating giggle to Charlie Moshenek.

I, Douglas Gunnell, leave my ability for getting out of class to anyone who can get away with it like I have.

I, C. L. Hill, leave my place in the library to George Bohannon in hopes that he can do enough to please Mrs. Chaney.

I, Bill Jennings, leave my ambition to graduate to Garvin Dellis and Maynard Brandon.

I, Harold Jones, leave the Chemistry laboratory in one piece to ease Mr. Barker's mind.

I, David Kidd, leave my size fourteen shoe to Reed Barker.

I, Allen Martin, leave my number 13 basketball uniform to anyone who is not superstitious.

I, Clyde Martin, leave my short schedule of classes to anyone else who would like to spend half a day at school.

I, Denny Mays, leave my Charles Atlas physique to Braxton Guill.

I, Harry Shriver, leave my ability--what ability? I haven't any.

I, Wayne Strader, leave my mixed-up love affairs for Sunday to Landon Bryant.

I, Jimmie Stroud, leave my sharp mind to Bobby Walton.

I, Willie Tate, leave my ambition to study in study hall to Neal Barker.

I, Bobby Wilkerson, leave my ability to work in the cafeteria for four years to anyone else who can do the same and gain the weight I have.

I, Curtis Kuykendall, leave my ability to get along with Mr. Dunnavant to anyone who can use it.

PROPHECY

As I climbed the stairs to report for duty on Ward 3, I bumped into Patsy Ramey, Physical Therapist at Ramey Clinic, San Diego, California, who had been called in for consultation.

Anxious to find out information about our classmates, I inquired about Mary Martin and Tillie Boyd, who had taken their nurses training with me. I learned that Mary was on staff at the Ramey Clinic and that Tillie was now an instructor of student nurses at the University of Virginia. I also learned that Patsy, having made reservations on the Jetty Airlines owned by Cynthia Wilson, was leaving that night for Cypress Gardens, Florida, where Denny Mays would be star performer of the water show. She informed me that Frances Howerton was working as an airline stewardess for the Jetty Airline Company and Jimmy Stroud was a pilot.

We were interrupted as I was paged to report to room 311. I said goodbye and walked down the corridor to the children's ward; to my surprise as I entered the room, I met Mrs. Gay Strader who was visiting her son, Cleo, Jr., recovering from a tonsillectomy. While I helped make him comfortable, Gay gave me news of our old classmates. She said Harry Shriver, Buddy East, and Sterling Green were each attempting the 2nd flight to the moon. Also Douglas Gunnell had attained the high rank of Admiral in the Navy.

Noticing that it was my lunch hour, I headed for the corner drug store owned by Harold Jones, and while waiting for my lunch, I looked over the magazine rack and bought an issue of the "Holley Fashion Guide", edited by Mrs. Leathy Francisco Holley, featuring outstanding models, Shirley Dawson, Shelby Stanfield and Norma Walker. Glancing around, I noticed a "Southern Planter" featuring the outstanding farmer of the year, Bobby Lee Wilkerson, with Joe Cobb, Johnny Dodson and Junior Gee taking 2nd, 3rd, and 4th places. I noticed advertisements of Martin's Shoe Store (owned and operated by Allen Martin) and C&C Auto Repair Shop (operated by Clyde Martin and C. L. Hill) in both magazines.

After picking up a prescription for one of my patients from the Pharmacist Gene Burnett, I returned to the hospital.

I saw that I still had an hour before going on afternoon duty, so I decided to catch up on my correspondence. In answering Jackie Clark's letter, I asked her to give my best wishes to Bill Jennings and Wayne Strader who were stationed in Honolulu where Jackie was doing Baptist Mission work.

I told her that two new members had been added to the Dan River faculty, Linda Thornton, now Mrs. Johnny Dodson, was teaching Physical Education and Betty Barber History and English. Bertha Lewis was beauty consultant for Max Factor and lived in Hollywood, California. Novalene Steele and Lois Milam were secretaries for Kidd, Cox and Kuykendall, Attorneys at Law, a firm established by David Kidd, Joe Cox and Curtis Kuykendall, here in Danville.

Mrs. Judy Adams Dodson had recently won the National Award for the Outstanding Homemaker of the year and placing second was Mrs. Ruth Ferguson Frankos, both receiving expense paid vacations to the French Riviera.

Noticing that it was nearing time for me to report for afternoon duty, I closed the letter and as I made my way to the desk, I thought how far our class had advanced since we graduated in 1959 and how I looked forward to our class reunion, June 1969.

ADVERTISEMENTS

If you are an alert young woman, you'll find an "extra special" job at the telephone company.

You'll meet lots of young people your own age . . . work in pleasant surroundings . . . receive good pay while you're being trained . . . get regular raises. And you don't need any experience!

Best of all, you'll be helping almost everyone in your community. Why not find out more about the advantages of telephone work?
